ABOUT THE DANCE SCHOOL

Welcome to Shelley Dobson School of Dance, based in Newcastle upon Tyne since 1999. We're all about dance and performing arts, offering classes for everyone from beginners to advanced. Whether you love ballet, contemporary or something in between, we've got you covered.

At our school, we foster a dynamic and inclusive environment where students of all ages and abilities can explore their passion for dance and performing arts. From classical ballet to contemporary styles, our expert teachers provide comprehensive training tailored to allow each dancer to flourish. We believe in nurturing our students' talents on stage and beyond. We aim to enrich the lives of all who take part so they can learn to a high standard. We believe that an important part of the dance school experience is to build confidence, make friends and have fun.

Our early years programme prepares young dancers with foundation levels of technique in a range of styles, building proficiency and confidence through fun and varied dances and activities.

The dance school is registered with the UKA (United Kingdom Alliance of Professional Teachers of Dancing and Kindred Arts, registration number 05931).

All teachers hold professional qualifications with the awarding body, and are fully insured, DBS checked and first aid trained.

From shows to exams and other performance opportunities, we provide students with plenty of chances to shine and have fun. Join us and discover your passion for performing in a supportive and exciting environment.
